Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-4, 6-18, and 20-27 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art, singularly or in combination, does not teach or fairly suggest a video system and a method of operating a video system that receives video data includes a plurality of premium contents as variously claimed. Particularly, the prior art does not teach or fairly suggest the limitations "to cause the selected at least one preferred promotion content to be retrieved from the local storage device and displayed to entice the viewer to select for viewing previously locally stored premium content associated with the selected at least one preferred promotion content", and "retrieving the selected promotion content from the local storage device and displaying the selected promotion content to entice the viewer to select for viewing the identified, previously locally stored premium content" as referred to the pre-appeal brief request for review filed 2/22/2007.
3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Ngoc K. Vu whose telephone number is 571-272-7306. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, John W. Miller can be reached on 571-272-7353. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
